BONAPARTE DOES NOT AGREE WITH COURT

WASHINGTON, August 29.—Secretary Bonaparte has just completed a thorough examination of the record of the pro ceedings of the court of inquiry in the case of the disastrous explosion on the Bennington, at San Diego, Cal., July 21st inst, and will announce his action in a day or two. It is understood that he does not agree with the court in several does not agree with the court in several of its conclusions in the matter of the individual responsibility of various officers and men of the vessel for the conditions which resulted in the explosion. In accordance with the reommendation of the court, Secretary Bonaparte has decided to convene a court martial in San Francisco for the trial of Ensign Charles Wade.

Amelia Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

AMELIA COURTHOUSE, VA., August 29.—During court to-day the case of H. Clay Chappel, of Paineville, whose application for a Confederate pension had been passed upon by the baard of pension examiners, the pension claim was allowed by Judga Watson.

In the case of W. B. Fleming, near Maplewood, who is now receiving a pension of $15 per annum, the pension board recommended an increase of the pension to $39 per annum, but Judga Watson thought there was not sufficient evidence to warrant the increase and disallowed the claim.

C. N. Stacy received official notice to-day of his appointment by Governor Montague as A delegate to the Farmers' Congress, which meets in Richmond September 12th to 22d. Amelia Court.

PREACHER DRIVEN OUT BY MOONSHINERS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANCKE, VA., August 22.—The moonshiners of Shooting Creek, Franklin county, the scene of many raids, are opposed to preachers. Rev. E. V. Goad, a young Baptist minister, preached at a schoolhouse Friday, lie was followed to the home of a member of the church, by a number of moonshiners. The leader went in, drew a gun on Goad, and demanded that he read the sermon that he preached or he would be killed. Goad and the members of the family begged for his life.

He shally escaped with moonshiners in pursuit.

MR. KENNEDY HONORED.

Elected President of the National Association of State Librarians.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASILLAND, VA., August 29.—State Librarian Kennedy, who has been spending the summer here, was surprised and highly appreciative of the honor conferred when informed this afternoon that ferred when informed this afternoon that he had been elected president of the National Association of State Librarians, which has been in session in Portland, Oregon. While he has only been connected with the State Library of Virginia twenty-two months, having formerly been an assistant librarian of Congress at Washington, he has brought Congress at Washington, he has brought the Virginia State Library up to such a degree of system and completeness that it has attracted wide reputation. In conversation with your correspondent, he alluded to the matter in a modest manner, but takes great pride in the prestige that this selection gives Virginia. He fully believes that Richmond will be the popular center for library, and cultured artisans, and that work which is being inaugurated in all of the States in temples of books will take its one from Virginia hereafter. A strong effort is being made to get the next Legislature to appropriate about 17,000 towards equipping the traveling libraries. The traveling library is a special endeavor of Mr. Kennedy's, and without any appropriation up to this time over thirty counties in Virginia have been supplied.

He estimates that $7,500 will be suffi-

He estimates that 17,500 will be suffi-cient to supply each county in the State with three traveling libraries. Mr. Ken-nedy says that the railroads of the State have been more than liberal in trans-porting these libraries free of expense to the State.

The interesting fact is disclosed that the attendance at the State Library this year has been over 65,000, as compared with an attendance of 18,000 last year, and from a class of fourteen young libra-rians, which he has been training, some of the largest libraries have been suprians, which he has been training, of the largest libraries have been sup-
